COLLEGE of PHYSICIANS of EDINBURGH

MEDICAL TRAINEES' CONFERENCE 2018

Organised by the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh Trainees & Members' Committee

Friday 26 January 2018

Call for Abstracts to deliver the: 44th Sir John Halliday Croom Medal

Applications are invited from Collegiate Members (but not Fellows) of any UK Royal College of Physicians, resident in the United Kingdom, who wish to compete for the 44th Croom Lectureship. The lecture will be delivered by the successful candidate at The University Place, Oxford Road, Manchester on Friday 26 January 2018.

The lecture is named after the late Sir John Halliday Croom, a Past President of the College, in recognition of his support of the concept of Collegiate Membership. It is competed for annually. It should be on a topic related to research within the last 5 years and will be delivered at the Symposium which is organised by the Trainees & Members' Committee of the College. Candidates are asked to submit a signed précis of not more than 1000 words, including relevant references, outlining the proposed lecture. The material need not necessarily comprise original investigative work nor does it need to be connected with the theme of the Trainees & Members' Symposium, further details of which can be obtained from a.fairbairn@rcpe.ac.uk

The lecturer, selected by the Trainees & Members' Committee, will receive the Croom Medal and an honorarium of £250. Travelling and subsistence expenses within the United Kingdom will be reimbursed in line with normal College procedure.

The winning submission and other entries may also be entered into The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Applicants are asked to email their précis by midnight on Sunday 26 November 2017 to a.fairbairn@rcpe.ac.uk
