Life as a Consultant Symposium

Friday 16 March 2018

My career as a whistleblower – Dr Peter Wilmshurst, Consultant Cardiologist, Royal Stoke University Hospital, Stoke-on-Trent

I will provide example from my experience of raising concerns about patient care and about misconduct by doctors and industry (pharmaceutical and medical device corporations) and the personal consequences including having to fight legal actions and giving evidence to the GMC.

Learning objectives

To provide insight into the consequences of raising concerns.
