

Call for Abstracts

Scottish Cardiac Society 28th Annual General Meeting 2019

Friday 20 – Saturday 21 September 2019

Dunblane Hydro Hotel, Dunblane

The Scottish Cardiac Society invite abstract submissions related to academic clinical and scientific research as well as the results of projects in service development and quality improvement. Submissions are welcome from clinical and research physicians, nurses, cardiac physiologists, other allied healthcare professionals and medical students.

Emily Taylor Travel Fund – Autumn Meeting prizes

Several travel grants will be awarded to assist with attendance at a future meeting relevant to cardiology or cardiac surgery.

- Best abstract oral presentation by a non-consultant physician (£250)
- Best abstract poster presentation by a non-consultant physician (£250)
- Best abstract oral presentation by a Nurse, Cardiac physiologist, or AHP (£250)
- Best abstract poster presentation by a Nurse, Cardiac physiologist, or AHP (£250)

Awards are subject to the applicant being a member of the SCS and submitting a report to be presented at an SCS meeting and/or publication on SCS website.

Medical Student Prize

There will be two prizes (worth £200 each) awarded for the best medical student abstract presentation (oral and poster). These will be awarded to assist with attendance at a future meeting relevant to cardiology or cardiac surgery, a student elective, or for another educational purpose.

For all categories of prize there should be more than one submission for the prize to be awarded. In the event of a single submission for any given category it will be for the independent judging panel to decide whether that presentation is of sufficient quality to justify the award being granted.

Emily Taylor Travel Fund – meeting attendance

There are discretionary funds available to assist with travel to and from Spring and Autumn SCS Meetings. Application should be made in writing to: scs.admin@rcpe.ac.uk. Successful applicants will be selected by the SCS Council. Award subject to applicant being a member of SCS and provision of receipts.

Abstract Submission

The abstract submission form is attached. Only submissions in this format will be considered. (Please return to this email address.) The deadline for submission is Noon on Monday 27 May 2019.

More details will follow in due course about the programme and registration for this meeting. Please save the event dates in your diary.

If you have any queries, for example about SCS membership, then do get in touch.

Yours sincerely,

Stephanie Hough
