

SYMPOSIA

ROYAL COLLEGE of PHYSICIANS
of EDINBURGH

REMOTE & RURAL CONFERENCE 2019

Creating a Community of Care

Tuesday 12 November 2019 | Inverness |  #rcpeRural19

Session 1

- Training perspective
- Generalism: the new specialism (broad-based training)
- Training, recruitment and retention in remote and rural medicine
- Co-production in Cumbria
- Trainees' perception of their rural placement in early-years training
- Credentialing in a remote and rural setting
- Workshops - the trainee voice

Session 2

- SHAAP – research into drinking in remote and rural areas of Scotland
- QI in a remote and rural setting
- Enhance: the safety net we all need

Session 3

- Changing delivery, changing outcomes
- “Surely not much goes on in rurality?”
- Wrap up/feedback from open space
- Poster competition prize giving

Guest speakers include:

Dr Patrick Byrne • Dr Eric Carlin
 Dr Vincent Connolly • Dr Cormac Doyle
 Professor Cathy Jackson • Dr Mike Jones
 Dr Stewart Lambie • Professor Graham Leese
 Jackie MacDiarmid • Dr Jean MacLeod
 Professor Stuart Maitland-Knibb • Dr Brian Tegaskis
 Dr Pauline Wilson

All grades of medical, nursing, scientific staff, allied health professionals and medical students are most welcome.

Abstracts are sought for competitions taking place at the event. These are a great opportunity to present your life, research and quality improvement projects. For more information, please visit: events.rcpe.ac.uk

For further details
and to book online:
events.rcpe.ac.uk

Dr Colin McDowall, Event Coordinator
 Tel: +44 (0)131 247 3671
 Email: c.mcdowall@rcpe.ac.uk

Venue | UHI, The Centre for Health Sciences, Old Perth Road, Inverness, IV2 3JH

Education