COLLEGE of PHYSICIANS of EDINBURGH

MEDICAL TRAINEES: A day in the life of a medical trainee:
inpatient and outpatient encounters – ONLINE SYMPOSIUM
Organised by the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh Trainees & Members' Committee

Friday 22 January 2021

Call for Abstracts to deliver the: 47th Sir John Halliday Croom Medal

Applications are invited from Collegiate Members (but not Fellows) of any UK Royal College of Physicians, resident in the United Kingdom, who wish to compete for the 47th Croom Lectureship. The lecture will be delivered virtually by the successful candidate on Friday 22 January 2021.

The lecture is named after the late Sir John Halliday Croom, a Past President of the College, in recognition of his support of the concept of Collegiate Membership. It is competed for annually. It should be on a topic related to research within the last 5 years and will be delivered at the Symposium which is organised by the Trainees & Members' Committee of the College. Candidates are asked to submit a signed précis of not more than 1000 words, including relevant references, outlining the proposed lecture. The material need not necessarily comprise original investigative work nor does it need to be connected with the theme of the Trainees & Members' Symposium, further details of which can be obtained from trainees@rcpe.ac.uk

The lecturer, selected by the Trainees & Members' Committee, will receive the Croom Medal and an honorarium of £250.

The winning submission and other entries may also be entered into The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Applicants are asked to email their précis by 9am on Monday 30 November 2020.
