

HYBRID MEDICAL TRAINEES CONFERENCE

Organised by the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh Trainees & Members' Committee

Friday 24 January 2025

Call for Abstracts to deliver the: 51st Sir John Halliday Croom Medal

Applications are invited from Collegiate Members (but not Fellows) of any UK Royal College of Physicians, resident in the United Kingdom, who wish to compete for the 51st Croom Lectureship. The lecture will be invited to be delivered in person by the successful candidate on Friday 24 January 2025 at the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

The lecture is named after the late Sir John Halliday Croom, a Past President of the College, in recognition of his support of the concept of Collegiate Membership. It is competed for annually. It should be on a topic related to research within the last 5 years and will be delivered at the conference which is organised by the Trainees & Members' Committee of the College. Candidates are asked to submit a signed précis of not more than 1000 words, including relevant references, outlining the proposed lecture. The material need not necessarily comprise original investigative work nor does it need to be connected with the theme of the Trainees & Members' conference, further details of which can be obtained from trainees@rcpe.ac.uk

The lecturer, selected by the Trainees & Members' Committee, will receive the Croom Medal and an honorarium of £250.

The winning submission and other entries may also be entered into The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Applicants are asked to email their précis by 9am on Friday 1 November 2024.
